

Here are some reflections I have revived from the Holy Spirit during my prayer times. If you find value - then give glory to God, if you find any errors then they will be mine. Rob

The place of the most evil ever done is also the place where the greatest love was given.

The place where the most selfishness was on display is also where the greatest selflessness is seen.

The place where selfish mankind killed his creator God was also the place where God gave himself to man in love and forgiveness

And in this who had the victory?

The resurrection shows it.

Love won it!

Selflessness won it!

God has the victory!

The victory could have been a minor victory in might ....

Instead it was a complete victory in love, in sacrifice and in humility.

And in His victory God, at the moment of His triumph, turned to us his murderers and handed us the victory prize:

What unfathomable love!

We have the victory prize:

We have forgiveness

We have victory over our sin and evil

We have peace with, love from and acceptance by the one we murdered. We have joy, a new family, a hope and a future

Who could have believed or hoped that such generosity, such grace would be God's response to our sin and selfishness

1Co 15:55 "O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING? O HADES, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY?" 1Co

15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

1Co 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (Scripture NKJV)
